Magnitude of Y2K problem

4033. SHRI S. PETER ALPHONSE: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government are aware of the magnitude of the Y2K problem;

(b) whether it is fact that our country's banking, Insurance, Communication, Power and transport networks, besides Government revenue and industrial enterprise could permanently be badly affected; and

(c) if so, the corrective measures Government propose to take and also to create public awareness through electronic and public media?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS AND THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI R. JANARTHANAN): (a) and (b) Yes, Sir. The Government of India is aware of the Y2K problem. Some of the listed sectors of economy which have been using computer systems extensively for their operation could face problems if their systems are not Y2K complaint.

(c) The Government has taken several initiatives including encouraging various institutions to provide special training on Y2K solutions and sensitising various users about the problem and the need to take steps in time to solve this problem. The Department of Electronics jointly with the software industry has brought out a directory of Indian Y2K solution providers and publicised Y2K on its Web page on the Internet.

Scams in ICCR

4034. SHRI JANARDAN YADAV: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that many MPs cutting across party lines had taken up the cases of multi-crore scams in ICCR with CAG, Central Vigilance Commissioner, Lieutenant
